Our Mission is to help others grow in the love and joy of Jesus Christ

OCTOBER 2020

Pastor's Note...

Please join me in praying for our church and for one another as we come back together for worship inside our sanctuary starting on October 11th at 10:00am. Pray for a wave of revival and healing to come to our land and remind one another, we will be sharing Holy Communion following the service at 9am on the first Sunday of October, the 4th.

When God describes the desolations or mighty acts He works in the earth, look how God does it. (Psalm 46)

1. He makes consumption (or wars) to cease. Choices must be made. Choices set.
2. He bursts our bubbles. We then decide where and in whom we place our trust.
3. He kicks our props out from under us. We build our up our most holy faith, not using it as a crutch but as an encouragement in the battles we face.
4. God consumes what consumes us. God breaks up what preoccupies us. All of our worries, fears, or misplaced desires bow down to the blessing and leadership of the Holy Spirit.
5. Our ultimate influence? We can be still and know that He is God! Everything about Him can overshadow everything about us. The cross proves His love for us so we can continue to be faithful.
6. The Lord will be exalted in the earth. His kingdom will have no end. What we see on the news, the strivings and bitterness of people will pass away. And Jesus will reign. That's what we live to see!

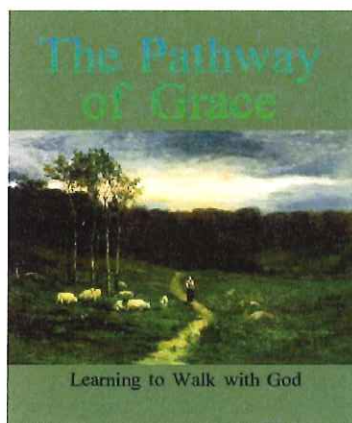

So, keep on doing good every opportunity you have. Keep on checking on one another. Keep on praying for one another. Thank everyone for bringing food for the Food Bank during the month of September.

Ground yourself in the truth. Examine everything in the light of the Scripture. Don't be afraid to question what you see and hear. Not everyone has the faith of Jesus.

Plus, we continue Operation Christmas Child in October!! Call the office if you have any questions and Rena will be glad to help you get started.

- You can pack your own shoe box, have someone help you, or purchase the necessary items to fill the shoebox. It's up to you how you would like to help.
- We have 50 cardboard boxes available for pickup during office hours or on Sunday.
- You can give $25 to have the mission committee pack a box online for you – this includes the shipping cost.
- You can donate towards packing the boxes for the items we have on hand, plus we will need some people to donate towards the shipping costs. How will you help?

Love you, Norman Ramsey

Return to In-person Worship (Inside)

October 11, 2020 at 9:30 am.

We are returning to in-person worship inside on October 11, 2020. But, we remain under Phase 2 guidelines at this time which includes the wearing of face coverings and maintaining social distancing. I appreciate everyone's patience and the encouragement of your prayers for the preparation we need to make for returning to the inside of our sanctuary for worship.

As we wait for October 11th we will continue our service on the lawn at 9:00 am. We will also continue our online service and FM broadcast. These will continue even after we return to inside of the building.

Above all, pray for God's presence to await our gathering together.

As we return to in person worship inside these are important things to remember.

1. Our service of worship will begin in the sanctuary at 9:30 am.
2. The health screening and registration will still take place before you enter the sanctuary.
3. Ushers will seat all of us to maintain social distancing.
4. *To assist with that, those who need to use the elevator to access the sanctuary need to call the office (352-5705) by Thursday of each week and let us know, as the number of people using the elevator affects our parking and seating arrangements.
5. Everyone else, we ask that you come to the front doors (Court Street side) to enter the sanctuary.
6. We also are having a time of instruction and gathering for our Children and Youth during our time of worship. Parents can drop off and pick up their children at the upstairs doors above the Day Care entrance. (You can see more details about this in the article on the next page.)

We are excited to reintroduce handbell practice on Wednesday nights as well as handbell worship performances beginning October 11! PRAISE THE LORD!!!!

A codependent person is someone who lets another person's behavior affect him or her and who is obsessed with controlling that the other person's behavior. Melody Beattie

I want to help everyone, isn't that what the Bible tells us to do?

Well, pick the items below that describe you the best.

Codependent, Unhealthy Helping	Healthy Helping
I shift who I am, to what I think you want	I can voice my own thoughts
Limits & boundaries feel wrong, selfish	I respect boundaries & have clear limits
Life comes to a complete stop & I can't function when there is conflict	I understand all relationships have conflicts & I can work through the issues
I am overly focused on or obsessed with other people and their problems	I consider other people's needs while accepting my own needs and limitations
I often give unsolicited advice; I'm hurt if my advice is not followed	I consider other people's wants, preferences, ideas when offering advice
People say I'm rigid and controlling	People describe me as flexible, respectful
I take responsibility for other people's feelings, actions, problems	I make a healthy distinction between self and others
I help out of obligation or compulsion	Giving help is a choice
My helping encourages dependency	I encourage independence in helping

BUT, BUT, BUT God tells us to help our neighbor !!!

Yes, so let's look at a Biblical, healthy example of helping; the story of the Good Samaritan. A man is robbed and left to die in the ditch. The Samaritan, on a trip, sees the injured man and stops to offer aid. He takes the man to a local facility for help. The Good Samaritan trusts others to take over, leaves the man, and continues on with his plans.

What the Good Samaritan did not do is: handle others' needs while ignoring his own, sabotage his plans because of the needs of others, decided that he was the only one who could meet the man's needs, require the injury man do anything in return for the help or avoid setting good boundaries with others involved.

Yes, codependency or unhealthy helping is a harmful habit. At Celebrate Recovery, you will find support in reaching a healthy combination of Galatians 6:5 (For each will have to bear his own load) and Philippians 2:4 (Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others, too).

BUILDING A LEGACY PAVER PROJECT

The pavers that adorn to Legacy Hall main entrance are such a symbol of joy and pride for our church. Not only do they beautify our entrance, but they remind us each time we enter that so many have left and are still leaving a legacy of love for Memorial Church!!

It has been a couple of years since we have added new pavers. Therefore, we want to give you the opportunity to purchase a paver in memory or in honor of a loved one. Cost is $100 per paver. You can choose the verbiage for the engraved brick (up to 20 characters per line, with a maximum of 3 lines per brick). On the reverse side of this sheet is a worksheet for you to use in placing your order for this project. (Additional copies of this form may be found in the church office.)

Please contact Cindy Ranson (434-665-8837) for more details or with any questions. Deadline for returning forms: Sunday, November 8, 2020. These forms, along with your check, may be turned into the church office or given to Cindy.

What better way to leave a Legacy of Love for a loved one than to honor them in a way that will be a part of this church for years to come.

Dear Church Family,

Words cannot adequately express our most sincere thanks for the many kindnesses you have bestowed on us during these past several months. We so appreciate your cards and notes of encouragement, the gifts from your gardens and kitchens, and above all else your prayers for both of us. They not only hasten healing of the body, they help us to stay focused on what's really important in our lives, and they lift our spirits when we feel discouraged. We just can't thank you enough.

For the most part, we are doing well. Betty will always have some COPD issues, and Skeeter's asthma has been acting up. He will be having a CT scan in the near future and we'll keep you up to date on that.

We praise God for all He continues to do in our lives and we stay mindful of those who are not so fortunate--and they are legion. We love you all and we pray for your health and safety. These have been trying times for all of us, but we look forward to the day when we can all be together safely in worship and in Sunday school.

God is good!

Betty and Skeeter Armstrong

Memorial Book Nook

Do you love to read? Lots of us do . . . so let's share!

The Memorial Book Nook is now located in the upstairs landing of the Legacy Hall Stairwell, brought to you by the "Ready Set Grow" Team. This is not the "Church Library", but a good old fashioned Book Swap! With vacations cut short, quarantine, working and playing from home...it's always good to have some new choices of reading material! AND....we are including DVD's and jigsaw puzzles...more choices!

We have a good start on novels; but need more donations of books you have read and would like to share as well as DVD's and puzzles. Just bring them in and put them on the cart! This includes all genres! Children's books are also welcome...if someone donates them...we will have them to share with other kids.

So, if you need a new book to read, a DVD to watch or a jigsaw puzzle to work on, just pick one out and take it home. When you finish, you can bring it back or pass it on.

There are no check-out rules . . . just take a book and/or leave a book and enjoy!

The Missions committee of Memorial United Methodist Church exists to reach out to the needy and to spread the gospel. Its main focus is to involve the congregation in Missions. It is equally committed to local, national, and international needs. If you want to experience the joy of spreading the gospel and helping the needy, join us in one of our hands on Missions Opportunities! If you are interested in finding out more information or giving ideas on missions opportunities, please contact Sue Waddell at 434-660-0367.

WANT SOMEONE TO PRAY WITH YOU?

Our prayer ushers haven't left you! We still want to pray with you even though church may look differently now! We encourage you to contact us by phone or email and we will be delighted to talk with you and pray for you! Romans 8:38-39 tells us "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." We are still the body of Christ even though we aren't physically together. God still loves you and so do we! So, do you wish for someone to pray with you? Then please contact one of us!
