Our Mission is to help others grow in the love and joy of Jesus Christ

January 2022

Pastor's Note...

One of the most encouraging things to see when you've been on a long trip are the familiar sites and milestones that count your way down to home. The relief and anticipation build as you draw ever closer to where you belong.

That's also how we can utilize New Year's resolutions; not as markers for traveling to an unknown destination but milestones for how we count down to go home.

For why do we make New Year's resolutions? It's not to have something extra to do. Instead, it's a description of how we want to be.

What kind of person do you believe God would describe as faithful? How are you going to become that person? Does that alter your commitments? Your schedule? Your use of technology?

1 John tells us we can become this faithful person because we have fellowship with the Word of Life! Our relationships and our commitments can all be governed by Him.

We Can...

1. Walk in the light because "if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from every sin." (1 John 1: 7)

2. Move through and past our temptations to fall short of our resolutions because “the world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God lives forever. (1 John 2: 17)
3. Give ourselves confidence and act within the truth. “Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth. This is how we know that we belong to the truth and how we set our hearts at rest in his presence. (1 John 3: 18 – 19)
4. Reach towards our goals in love and in the power of the Spirit because “He loved us first” (1 John 4: 19) and gave us His Holy Spirit. (1 John 4: 13)
5. Overcome the world and make each and every resolution a reality. (1 John 5: 4)

Yes, the world may fall apart and its systems crash with the passage of time. But, we will endure and remain steadfast in our faith. We will maintain our hope in Jesus Christ.

So, pursue the resolutions and goals God gives you remembering this: “All who have this hope in Him purify themselves, just as he is pure.” (1 John 3: 3)

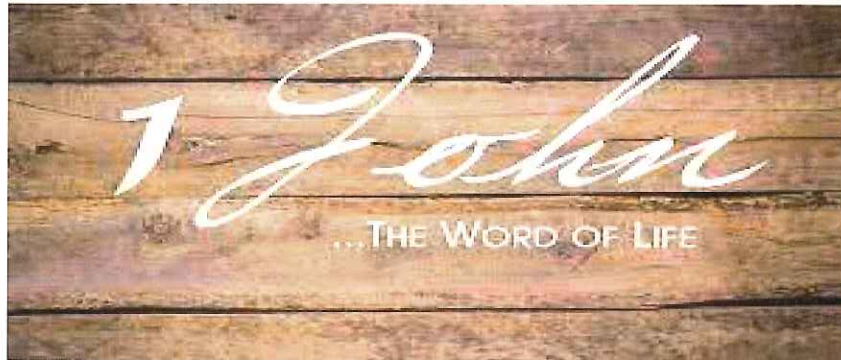

Love, Norman

Church Security

Dear Church Family,

For our convenience and safety, our Legacy Hall entrance has a keycode that can be used to gain entrance to the building. It is easier and cheaper to change a key code than it is to change locks on the door, should the need arise for such action. The code will be given to any church member that needs it, but with that privilege comes responsibility. If you know the code to the door, we ask that you PLEASE NOT SHARE it with others, ESPECIALLY to people that are not a part of our church family. We’ve had situations where a non-member has entered our building on several occasions using the code. That is why we changed it back in October. If you have any questions or comments, please contact me at sueeggleston918@gmail.com or (434)664-7325. Thanks for your cooperation and understanding. \o/

Church Council Minutes
Memorial United Methodist Church
December 15, 2021 Meeting

Those in attendance were Sue Eggleston, Mitch Eggleston, Norm Ramsey, Harry White, Nathan Putney, Marie Milton, Angie Dillon, Leeann Robinson, Rodney Deaner, Debby Long, Cindy Ranson, Sheila Webb, Bobby Waddell, Sue Waddell, Donna Deaner, Tom Gilliam.

Sue Eggleston called the meeting to order at 7:30 pm.

Sue Eggleston led devotions, "One Thing for Christmas", choose Jesus!

Minutes from November 2021 were approved.

Sue Eggleston (CC Chair)...Asked the group to call Kinckle with any questions about the finance report. Also, asked council if we should put the "budget figure" or the "estimate of giving" on the back of the bulletin.....it was agreed to put the "budget figure". Leadership retreat is scheduled for 1/29. Newsletter deadline is 12/20.

Bobby Waddell said he would like to see all church leaders encouraging folks to get the covid vaccine. And he also has heard from a few people that are not coming to church because everyone is not wearing masks. Discussion followed, and it was also brought up that some people were not coming to church last year because we were required to wear masks, and that the vaccine was a personal decision and has not been mandated by the Bishop.

Donna Deaner asked the council to approve a time of 11:25 for SS classes to end, allowing the parents of children in these classes to know what time they need to pick up. This was approved.

Marie Milton asked council to approve having "coffee and conversation " once a month at the church on 2nd Saturdays, the first being on 1/8 at 9:30 am. This was approved.

Norman brought up that the Carver Price Legacy Museum folks asked to use the sanctuary on the afternoon of 1/16, since the high school auditorium is under construction. This was approved.

Nathan and Brenda Putney (Prayer Ministry)...No prayer meeting on 12/27. Thanks to all who have been attending!

Angie Dillon and Cindy Ranson (Daycare)...Thing are going well. Santa visited, MDC employees had their Christmas Celebration. We will be closed 12/23-12/31, reopening on 1/3.

Debby Long and Marie Milton (Congregational Care)...Caravans visited senior members on 11/21. Another caravan scheduled for 12/19. A small gift will be given out to all members of the congregation Sunday 12/19.

Harry White (Congregational Care)...replacement for the Legacy Hall freezer will be delivered on 12/22. Fire Marshall made annual inspection of the church. Other projects completed are shade sails taken down, new water cooler purchased, daycare entrance light has been repaired, replaced 2 broken door stops, repaired other lights in daycare, defibrillators were sent out to be serviced, and are working to find an internal water leak. There has been a request for handicap seating in the sanctuary...Harry will check this out and report to council. Also reported that some lights are out in the fellowship area of Legacy Hall.

Bobby Waddell (SPRC)...Met on 12/1 and discussed modifications to job descriptions for employees. Hope to meet in January with new members. Recommended to the Bishop and Cabinet that Norm be reappointed to Memorial for 2022.

Debby Long (Super Seniors)...On 12/1 enjoyed a trip to Rosefield Farm for lunch and a wreath making class. On 12/10 seniors enjoyed lunch at Legacy Hall along with singing Christmas carols. There will be a senior breakfast in January.

Norman Ramsey (Pastor)...requested council approve a love offering the next 2 Sundays in December and our Christmas Eve offering to go to disaster relief in Kentucky, where tornadoes have caused extensive damage. This was approved. Norm also thanked everyone for all the missions and activities happening at MUMC, and offered prayer requests for 2022 General Conference, for Bishop Sharma Lewis and her refocusing on evangelism and the gospel, and for discerning when the time is right to return to 2 services at MUMC.

Nathan Putney closed with prayer.

Sue Eggleston adjourned the meeting at 8:35 pm.

Commit. Connect. Serve.

When a person joins the United Methodist Church, they enter into a covenant with God and the other church members to keep certain vows as part of the church family. You can look them up in The UMC Discipline, Article 217. I want to focus on vow #6: (I vow) "to faithfully participate in its ministries by (my) prayers, (my) presence, (my) gifts, (my) service, and (my) witness." You might ask, "How do I do all of this?"

1. Prayers. That's an easy one. Just remember to lift up your church and your church family in your prayers! Another way is to be a part of the church prayer ministry. Prayer meetings are held every other Monday night, 7 pm, in the Sanctuary and are open to anyone. You can volunteer to be a prayer usher that prays with people after our worship services. AND you can join the prayer chain that receives prayer requests by email. (Just notify Nathan and Brenda Putney at PrayerChainMUMC@yahoo.com and you'll be added.)
2. Presence. That's an easy one. Just come to church. Worship. Sunday school. Other activities. All Christians benefit from spending time face-to-face with fellow Christians.
3. Gifts. The Bible tells us that God has given certain gifts (talents, resources, etc.) to each of us and we are called to share them with the church. This one is a little harder because we have to give of ourselves, perhaps even sacrifice, as God calls us to be a generous giver....of our resources, our time, our love.
4. Service. Another tough one. Again, we are called to give of ourselves....our time, our energy, our hands and feet. MUMC offers many opportunities to serve. You will receive great joy and purpose when you can match up your gifts with your service. I'll give some details of service opportunities down below.
5. Witness. You may have heard the expression, "Your actions may be the only Bible some folks read." We need to witness the truth of the Gospel and the love of Jesus Christ in how we act and how we speak. Some may have the gift of evangelism and be able to share their faith with those around them. People are watching us. Let's try to be good representatives of Jesus all the time....at work, at home, on social media, etc.

Here are current ministries at MUMC and how you can COMMIT, CONNECT, and SERVE:

Worship Committee (Help by greeting, ushering, sound system, monitors, acolyting, worship assistant), Music (choir, hand bells, solo/ensemble music), Homebound Communion (join the teams that visit our homebound members monthly to deliver Holy Communion), Worship Arts (planning creative elements for our worship services), Flower Committee (planning, decorating, and taking care of flowers for church), Congregational Care Committee (caravans, super seniors, first Fridays, Helping Hands), Hospitality Team (planning congregational meals), Bereavement Team (planning meals for bereaved families), Holy Grounds (providing breakfast dishes to share), Evangelism Committee (monitoring church attendance, gift bags for visitors, informational brochures for visitors, reaching out in community), Celebrate Recovery Team (Tuesday night meetings to help folks break bad habits), Missions Committee (planning opportunities to serve and give to those in need...locally and worldwide), Christian Education (volunteer to teach Sunday school, Bible studies....participate in Sunday school and Bible studies), Nursery/Children's Church (coordinate volunteers, volunteer!), United Methodist Men (join the guys as they take on various projects each year....Pancake Supper, Cook-outs, etc.), Property & Grounds (join the team that helps take care of our buildings and landscaping...handyman jobs, a multitude of needs, night security details), Bible Time (reading Bible stories to the daycare children), Communications (get involved with our website, Facebook, creating flyers, etc.), volunteering to help out in the church office.... OR you can initiate a new ministry!!

Contact me at (434)664-7325 and I'll help you get connected!!

Love, Sue Eggleston, Church Council Chairman

You've probably heard that at C/R, we work to acknowledge our hurts, hang-ups, and harmful habits. We relay on Biblical principles to address our 3h's while reaching for a renewed life. One of the tools we use is building healthy boundaries. Dr. Henry Cloud literally wrote the book on Boundaries. Here are his thoughts:

Boundaries define us. They define what is me and what is not me. Boundaries help us keep the good in and the bad out. Setting boundaries inevitably involves taking responsibility for your choices. You are the one who makes them. You are the one who must live with their consequences. And you are the one who may be keeping yourself from making the choices you could be happy with. We must own our own thoughts and clarify distorted thinking.

What is a boundary, and how do we build them, you ask?

A picture is worth a thousand words.

Picture your boundary as building a fence. First, the structure is constructed on your property, not your neighbors. Your effort should be focused on you.

Now, what does it take to build a fence?

Posts, Boards, nails and following Jesus' example as your blueprint.

Start with the posts. The post on your fence is forgiveness. Jesus quoted Leviticus 19:18 "Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against anyone among your people, but love your neighbor as yourself." Another example: as he hung dying on the cross, Jesus asked that those who nailed him there be forgiven.

The boards for the fence reflect the actions of Jesus in grace, peace, understanding, and self-control. Here are a couple of examples of Jesus setting boundaries. To the woman caught in adultery, he showed grace ("Neither do I condemn you.") and boundaries. ("Go and sin no more."). To the Pharisees who condemned the woman, Jesus listened and set boundaries. ("Let him who is without sin throw the first stone.") (John 8:1-11)

Jesus' parable of the Father of a prodigal son is also illustrates setting boundaries with forgiveness in peace, love, grace, understanding, and personal choices. The Father sent his son away but forgave him, prayed for him, and welcomed his repenting son back. (Luke 15:11-33)

The last needed element in building your fence is nails; nails to hold the boards to the posts. Prayer and discerning God's plan are your nails. Matthew 6:6 tells us to go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father. (Matthew 6:6) The best fences are built based on God's plans.

Fences can be unfriendly barricades

Or they can be a pleasant way of setting off and protecting God's plan for your life.

It's back...Coffee and Conversation!! I've missed our time of coffee and fellowship, and I hope you have also! It's been way too long! Maybe you aren't familiar with this time called Coffee and Conversation? It's just an informal time to get together, enjoy each other's company and fellowship as well as coffee and donuts on a Saturday morning. Each month we will have some food for thought to chat about. We will restart this on January 8th at 9:30 am in the church fellowship hall in Legacy Hall! We will continue to meet each second Saturday of the month! For January we will chat about being conformed in the image of Christ. Come, join us! Everyone is invited! If you have any questions, contact me! Hope you are curious enough to join us! Marie Milton

The Missions committee of Memorial United Methodist Church exists to reach out to the needy and to spread the gospel. Its main focus is to involve the congregation in Missions. If you are interested in finding out more information or giving ideas on missions opportunities, please contact Sue Waddell at 434-660-0367.

Chris & Paula McNutt, Hope of life, Guatemala

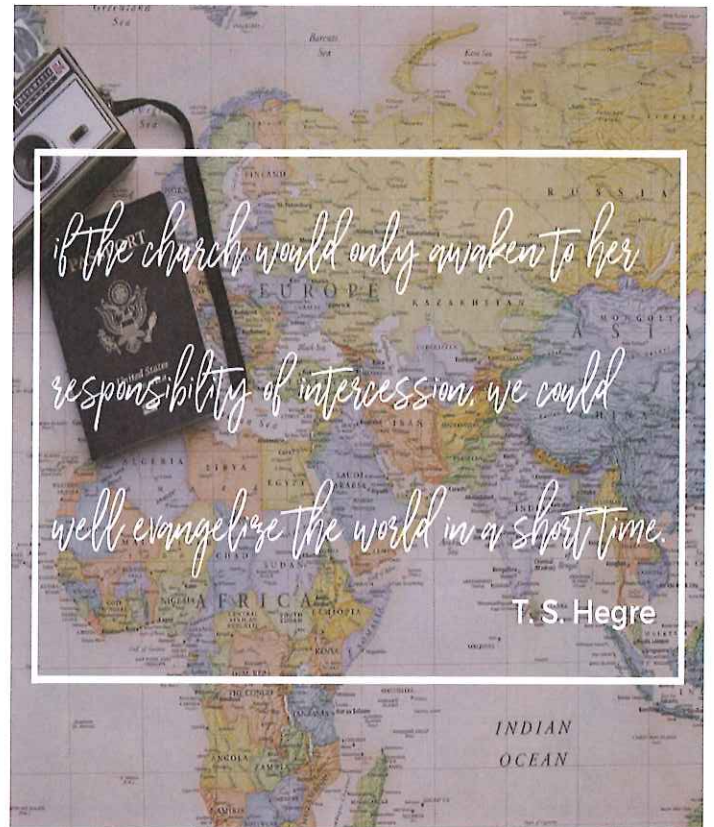

Steve & Cami Mathers, Stepping Forward Ministries, Romania

Emi Monges, Ambassadors for Christ, Paraguay

If you are looking for a place to serve this winter, the missions committee needs more members to help us reach out to our community and beyond.

"So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one" (Ezekiel 22:30).

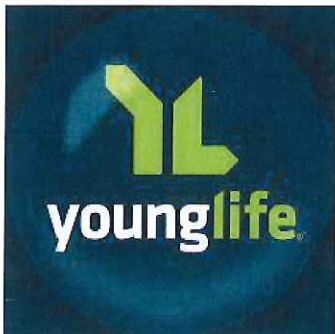

"Ask of Me and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for Your possession" (Psalm 2:8)

Thank you to everyone who supports Young Life in Appomattox and especially those that help with the Campaigners (early morning bible study that's held weekly at Baine's bookstore) breakfast. We appreciate those that make and bring the breakfast food as well as those who contribute financially to the fund for when breakfast food must be purchased.

The link to the meal train is <https://mealtrain.com/n29410> and anyone who'd like to donate money rather than provide meals can contact Nancy Dawson in the MUMC office or simply note on your check that it's for the Young Life Breakfast fund.

Again, thank you so much for all the love and support for Young Life in the Appomattox and Central Virginia area!

We appreciate those who have been meeting for prayer on Monday evenings (every other week). Our meetings for January will be at 7pm on 1/10, and 1/24 in the sanctuary. All are invited.

"The great people of the earth today are the people who pray. I do not mean those who talk about prayer, nor those who say they believe in prayer, nor yet those who can explain about prayer, but I mean those who take time and pray. They have not time. It must be taken from something else. This something else is important. Very important, and pressing but still less important and less pressing than prayer." S. D. Gordon

Our prayer ushers are available to pray with you as you need.

Jeannie White's son, Chris Epperson, is a Captain in the US Army National guard and he is to be deployed to Iraq in the near future. Please be in prayer for his safety and for his wife and sons and Harry and Jeannie for peace and comfort while he is deployed.
